

CoBRA force

By IASToppers | 2023-11-06 15:20:00

CoBRA force

The Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) has recently withdrawn the CoBRA force from Jammu and Kashmir.

[ref-Kashmir observer]

About the CoBRA Force (Combat Battalion for Resolute Action):

- The CoBRA force is an elite unit of the Central Reserve Police Force (CRPF) that was formed specifically to counter the Maoist insurgency in India.
 - CRPF functions under the Ministry of Home Affairs.
- It was established in 2008 under the command and control of the CRPF.
- The force is trained in Maoist intelligence techniques and strategy.
- It is headquartered in the National Capital Region.
- It has battalion headquarters in every Naxalite-hit state, including Chhattisgarh, Jharkhand, Andhra Pradesh, and Maharashtra.
- It was initially raised to counter the Naxal insurgents in the Red Corridor.
 - The red corridor or the red zone, is the region in the eastern, central and the southern parts of India where the Naxalite-Maoist insurgency has the strongest presence.
- Their training regime and duration is along the lines of other commando forces of the country such as the National Security Guard.
- It is proficient in guerrilla tactics and jungle warfare.
- It is considered to be one of the most experienced and successful law enforcement units in the country.

Other key facts:

- The Greyhounds is a police special forces that fights against Maoism in Andhra Pradesh and Telangana Police departments in India.
- The Greyhounds were established in 1989.