

What is a diplomatic passport?

By IASToppers | 2023-05-27 15:10:00

What is a diplomatic passport?

Recently, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi surrendered his diplomatic passport.

[Ref: sbnri]

What is diplomatic passport?

- Diplomatic passports are also known as 'Type D' passports.
- Diplomatic passports are issued to Indian diplomats, government officials, and select individuals who are authorised to undertake official travel on behalf of the Indian government.
- Diplomatic passports are maroon in colour.

What is the difference between Normal passport and Diplomatic passport?

- Diplomatic passport has 28 pages.
- Normal passport has a dark blue cover, whereas a Diplomatic passport is a maroon in colour.
- Normal passport is valid for 10 years for adults and five years for minors, diplomatic passports are issued for a period of five years or less.

How can one apply for a Diplomatic passport?

- Only the Passport Seva Programme \(PSP\) Division handles the applications for diplomatic/official passports.
 - Passport Seva Programme (PSP) Division is under the Ministry of External Affairs, in Patiala House in Delhi.
- However, a person can also apply for a Diplomatic passport at the passport office attached to his present address.

What are the benefits of Diplomatic passport?

Official identification:

- The diplomatic passport serves as an official identification document for individuals representing the Indian government on diplomatic missions.
- They help in establishing their identity and official status.

Diplomatic immunity:

- The holders of diplomatic passports are typically entitled to certain privileges and immunities as per international law.
- The immunities include arrest, detention, and certain legal proceedings in the host country, safeguarding their ability to perform official duties without hindrance.

Visa facilitation:

- Diplomatic passports often enjoy certain privileges when it comes to visa facilitation.
- Many countries offer expedited visa processing or waive visa requirements altogether for diplomatic passport holders.

Access to diplomatic channels:

- The diplomatic passport grants access to diplomatic channels and services provided by Indian embassies, consulates, and other diplomatic missions worldwide.
- This includes assistance with consular services, protection, and support while abroad.

Priority services:

- The holders of diplomatic passports may receive priority services at airports and during immigration procedures.
- The services include dedicated immigration counters or expedited security and customs clearance.

Official representation:

- Diplomatic passport signifies the official representation of the Indian government and confers a sense of authority and credibility while dealing with international counterparts, foreign officials, and diplomatic communities.

Can a citizen get a Diplomatic Passport?

- Diplomatic passports are issued based on official designation and roles within the government.
- They are not available for general public use.
- They cannot be obtained for personal or leisure travel.